

“Nothing I Can Do
About It Now”

Song

- “I know just what I’d change if I went back in time again, but there’s nothing I can do about it now” – Beth Chapman
- Jer.38:....5, king!
- Choices matter . . . Consequences remain

I. Sobering Reality (nothing you can do

It's too late

- Sarah and Hagar, Gn.16 . . . 21
- Israel, Nu.14:...40-45
- Naomi, Ru.1:...11-12, 16
- Ahasuerus, Est.1, 2 . . .
- David, Ps.55:6
- Envious men, Dn.6
- Peter, Mt.26
- Judas, Mt.27
- Herod, Mk.6

I. Sobering Reality (nothing you can do

II. Serious Results

Choices matter because results remain

- Companion. Mt.19
- Children. 2 Sam.13-18, David
- Career. Lot
- Time. Mt.25
- Temper. Gn.34 (49:6-7). 1 K.2:28
- Tongue. Dt.34:5-8 (Nu.20)

“It’s too late to say you’re sorry”

- Esau...Gn.25 . . . 27; Hb.12:16-17
- Death...Lk.16
- Jerusalem...Lk.19:41-42

I. Sobering Reality (nothing you can do

II. Serious Results

III. Scriptural Resolves

1. Plead for God's help. 1 Sm.1
2. Pursue the truth. 2 Co.13:8, 10
3. Persevere by His power. Ph.4:13
 - Explains Paul's power to persevere...
 - Ep.6:10 / Col.1:11 = Ph.4:13
 - Our promise, too.
 - Prison epistles.

Paul outwardly appeared weak and defeated

There is no excuse for waiting until it's too late to save our souls

Rich, young ruler, Lk.18

1. Sobering reality
2. Sad remorse
3. No scriptural resolve

Zacchaeus, tax-collector, Lk.19

1. Sobering reality
2. Joyful repentance
3. Salvation