God Is Faithful (1 Corinthians 10:13)

1 Co.10:13: Misused and Misunderstood

- Context: 6, 11
 - Israelite history was intended for their instruction . . . and for ours, 1:1-2.
- 1-2: rescued Israel ...many fell.
- 3-5: rescued Corinth from sin; miracles, yet...many fell (6, 11)

1 Co.10:13: Misused and Misunderstood

- 12: warning: overconfidence can conquer us.
- Therefore: a warning.
- Let him who thinks he stands: (8:9-13)
- Take heed: don't get careless.
- Lest he fall:
 - Peter: Mt.14 / Lk.22 / Jn.21
 - 1 Jn.1:8
 - Paul set the example: 1 Co.9:27
 Encouragement (13): a way out

I. Our Temptations Are Not Superhuman

No temptation has overtaken

- Lk.5:5, fishing
- Lk.5:26, paralytic
- Lk.7:16, fear
- 1 Co.10, temptation

Man: human

- Belonging to man
 - 2:13, man's wisdom
 - 4:2, man's judgment
 - 10:13, what man can bear
- Job . . . Paul . . . Jesus

God is faithful

Worthy of trust, dependable. 2 Pt.2:9.

God is able

■ 2x. 1 Pt.5:9

Endure

 Bear up under trouble or difficulty, put up with.

Some prefer excuses

- "Nobody knows how bad I've had it."
- "If you had gone through my trials, you would have done as I did."
 - Dt.8:1-3
 - 1 Co.5-6
 - Ph.4:13

Excuses block God's forgiveness

- 1 Sm.24, 26, 28, Saul
- Lk.16:27-31, better excuses?

Others resisted far worse temptations than Israel and Corinth

- Gn.6
- Gn.22
- Job
- Hb.11-12:4

I. Our Temptations Are Not Superhuman

II. God Is Faithful

God can be trusted.

- He protects us from temptations above our ability to bear.
- He watches us.
 - Providence. Ex.13:17; Mt.6:13
 - Precepts. Mt.25:14; 1 Jn.5:3; Ac.4.
 - Promises. Lk.9:24.
 - People. Hb.10:24.
 - Power. Ph.4:13

God provides a way of escape with each temptation

- A way out of a defile, mountain pass...
- Gn.39 (1 Co.6:18; 10:14)
- 1 Sm.19:12, Michal
- 1 Sm.23:...14, 19-29, Saul
- David: Run! Hide!
 - Persecuted; pursued; poverty; pain; provoked...
 - 2 Sm.11, promotion. 2 Co.12:21

What does 1 Co.10:13 promise?

- Passage doesn't promise escape from temptation.
- Becoming a Christian does not alter our circumstances; it alters our attitude toward them.

I. Our Temptations Are Not Superhuman

II. God Is Faithful

III. We Are Able To Bear The Temptation

Endure

- To bear up under trouble or difficulty.
- Some problems will not end till we die.
 - 1 Pt.2:19
 - 2 Co.12

Conclusion

- 1. After a trial we can get bitter or better.
- 2. Strongest temptations are no excuse for sin.
- 3. God delivers those who do their best to escape.
- 4. One of the great temptations in crisis: we no longer need God or the church...
- 5. Paul made lost souls his business.
